

Test Engineer (m/f)

in Seoul, Korea

GEMMACON

We are a consulting company, based in Germany, with our main focus being the automotive industry - radically simple, solution-oriented and digitized. Our business covers development, run-up management, connected car services, quality analytics and after sales. Well known OEMs and first tier suppliers are among our customers.

Apply now and become part of our team!

PROFILE

- » You have at least 1-year of experience in the field of software testing and quality assurance in the automotive industry
- » You are familiar with methods and procedures in Software testing, and you may already know about tools and getting a log from the tools
- » Engineering skills to setup the proper test environments, additional preparation of configuration will be a plus
- » You have IT background with education at degree level or similar in terms of using MS office and Windows, mobile application
- » You are a communicative team player and able to communicate in native Korean as well as writing, reading and communicate in English
- » Korean citizens preferred

TASKS

- » Perform software testing and reporting for defects of the World's Best German car manufactures' products
- » Follow-up with stake holders on defects, update and verify defects
- » You create and revise test cases in English based on the requirements from clients
- » You formulate the results of your tasks to the management about the progress in the project

Please fee free to contact our HR team for any further questions.
We are looking foward to your application.

+82-10-8647-7085
charles.kim@gemmacon.de
www.gemmacon.com